

ARH Canberra

Small Animal Emergency & Critical Care Specialist

An opportunity for a Veterinary Emergency & Critical Care Specialist to join a dedicated and friendly team at ARH Canberra on a full-time basis.

- State of the art facilities and equipment
- Sign on bonus, relocation plus excellent salary and staff benefits
- Flexible work arrangements including a 4-day working week

Our Difference

ARH Canberra is an around the clock service to the community for their beloved pets. We offer referral services Monday to Friday 8am to 6pm and emergency care all other hours. The referral service is comprised of specialist surgeons including orthopaedic and soft tissue, a Medicine specialist and an oncology registrar. The team is supported by Residents, Interns and highly qualified vet nurses. We pride ourselves on high quality around the clock care by our highly trained team. The facility has 3 surgical theatres, treatment areas, CT, 1.5T MRI, DX radiography, ultrasound room endoscopy room etc. The expansion of services has led ARH Canberra to building a new purpose built 1100 square meter (approx. 12,000 square foot) hospital which opened in late 2021.

The Position

We are currently seeking a Criticalist to join our growing team. Team fit is very important to us, so we are looking for individuals who have excellent communication, organisation and time management skills and have a passion for outcomes, patient care and excellent clinical service. A very competitive salary package is on offer, including sign on bonus, participation in incentive plans plus relocation.

We are keen to hear from Veterinarians who have finished Residency programs and are studying for board certification.
