ACVECC Knowledge List 2026 – Small Animal Candidates

Required Reading List: The following list of references contains the material that residents/ fellows are expected to learn with retention and comprehension during their training. To facilitate this, a recent edition of appropriate resources from each section must be provided on-site at each Residency Training Facility. Computer access to the common veterinary and human medical databases must also be available on-site at each Residency Training Facility.

Small Animal Candidates sitting the examination in Fall 2026 are responsible for journal articles from calendar years 2023-2025, book titles published during or before 2025, and the Small Animal Additional article list.

Both Large Animal (LA) and Small Animal (SA) candidates sitting the General MCQ examination in Fall 2026 are responsible for journal articles from the calendar years 2023-2025, and the journal articles that appear in the Small or Large Animal Additional Article lists.

Reading List: Journals

Articles germane to the field of Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care for the appropriate species should be reviewed from the following journals. Relevant articles from the required journal list are considered testable material for the ACVECC board examination.

Required Journal List:

|  |  |  |
| American Journal of Veterinary Research                                  | Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association | The New England Journal of Medicine    |
| Critical Care Medicine   | Journal of Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care      | Veterinary Surgery (for LA Candidates) |
| Equine Veterinary Journal (for LA Candidates)                            | Journal of Veterinary Internal Medicine                |  |
| Frontiers in Veterinary Science (Section of Emergency and Critical Care) |  |  |

Supplemental Journal List:

The supplemental article list provides candidates with publications that bridge the gap in the core journals and textbooks. Articles from this list are not considered required knowledge for the board examination unless specifically listed separately on the Additional Article List and will not be used as a sole reference for an examination question.

Small Animal

Required Reading List: Textbooks

Please note that expected knowledge is duplicated in many of these references: it is not necessary or expected that residents will be familiar with every text listed. However, several suitable texts are listed to ensure that residents have access to all pertinent information. For each knowledge category in the Required Reading List, at least one edition of a textbook that covers the appropriate species of interest and is published within the last 10 years should be available for study and reference. (LA – Large animal, SA – Small animal, LA/SA – All species, Human – Human beings). Textbooks highlighted yellow are new additions added this year.
